

Synthetic Personal Data Breach Procedure

This procedure contains no real client, employee, or incident information.

The incident lead records notification decisions in the breach register and coordinates notices to the Board and affected data principals.